

INSTITUT TECHNOLOGIQUE

Serving the forestry and furniture industries

Companies in the forestry and furniture industries

FCBA and its teams of experts will help you improve your competitiveness and speed up your ecological and digital transition.

It provides companies with the know-how of its engineers and technicians and the technology of its laboratories. It assists professionals in standardising and improving the quality of their products and helping them to take up the latest technological innovations. FCBA also offers monitoring services matching your markets and can help speed up the transfer of R&D-driven technological advances.

Design and innovation

Designing and building with wood, in respect of standards and regulations. For furnishings, a “design follows function” approach is taken, with innovative materials proposed via the INNOVATHEQUE resource centre.
